Treat Your Kidneys for Rheumatism.
When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. DUMAS AND HIS BARBER.

Origin of the Practice of Speculating in Theater Tickets.
The practice of speculating in theater tickets, strange as it may appear, was started by the elder Dumas. He patronized a Paris barber named Porcher, and one day this worthy while shaving the novelist asked him why he did not sell the tickets given him by the managers of the theaters where his plays were produced.

"To whom could I sell them?" asked the author of the "Three Musketeers." "Why, to me, if you like," replied Porcher. "And what would you do with them?" asked Dumas. "That's my business," replied the barber, continuing to lather the bronzed face of the famous story teller.

"But I give you tickets whenever you ask for them," said Dumas. "Ah! One or two are not sufficient for my purpose," responded Porcher. "I must have all your tickets, and every day too." And you will pay for them?" said the dramatist. "Cash," was the simple yet practical reply.

Dumas at that moment was very badly in need of money, so he at once concluded the bargain. Porcher, who shortly after this gave up shaving and cutting hair, made similar bargains with other authors and quickly became rich.

The Difference.
He was a man who was making $50 a week and was having luncheon with his fiancée in an uptown restaurant. The lady ordered chicken salad, followed by black coffee and wafers. The man, who could have afforded everything on the bill and had not felt a hole in his pocketbook, had consommé and Little Neck clams and drank water. The waiter got 10 cents.

A clerk who was kept busy earning his salary of $18 took his sweetheart to an expensive seaside resort. It took twenty minutes to decide what they wanted to eat. Finally the order came, heaped high up on a large tray.

At the lady's place the waiter deposited roast beef, mashed potatoes, chicken croquettes, with peas, a salad of lettuce and potatoes and a cup of coffee.

The man, wondering how he could get a winter overcoat, ate a porterhouse steak, with mushrooms, fried potatoes, green corn and coffee.

For dessert they had ice cream and fancy cakes, with more coffee. The waiter got a quarter.—New York Herald.

The Boast of an Expert.
"This, ladies and gentlemen, is the celebrated trick mule, Dot," said the clown as the animal was led into the ring. "After many years of effort I am able to say I can make him do anything he wants to."

The Auctioneer.
Said a conscientious auctioneer: "Ladies and gentlemen, there is no sham about these carpets. They are genuine tapestry carpets. I bought them from old Tapestry himself."
